

Rob McInnis Appointed Canoro's VP Business Development and Corporate Affairs

(Calgary, Alberta – December 5, 2006) – Canoro Resources Ltd. announces the promotion of Rob McInnis as Canoro's new Vice President, Business Development and Corporate Affairs, effective immediately. Rob has been appointed an executive officer of the Company and will be the interim Chief Financial Officer.

Rob graduated from the University of Warwick with an MBA, and the University of Calgary with a B.Sc. and B.Comm. Most recently, Rob was Canoro's Director, Investor Relations and New Ventures and joined the company in May 2005. Rob has worked over 10 years in the upstream petroleum industry, including working in Canada, the Middle East and India. Rob has served in roles of increasing responsibility on both the operational and financial side of the upstream business.

The Company believes that Rob's diverse experience will be invaluable in shaping its corporate and financial strategy as Canoro continues to increase its presence in India.

Canoro is a Canadian-based international oil and gas company operating in the Assam/Arakan basin of northeast India. Canoro has a 60% working interest in and is the operator of the Amguri field. Canoro has a 65% working interest in and is operator of the AA-ON/7 exploration block. Canoro has a post-farmout 15% non-operated working interest in the 295 km² AA-ONN 2003/2 exploration block.
